Do you want to have a say in the support which is provided in Birmingham schools for Children and Young People with Additional Needs?

We are looking for young people, aged 11-25 years to come and join the RISE Youth Forum and help shape the co-production of services in the city.

The role involves advising Birmingham City Council (BCC) to develop, deliver and review their programmes of activities, meeting with Officials, Councillors and other key figures such as Sue Harrison the Director of Education and Skills.
