 Chapter One

Rain is now back at Hodge Hill after the worst first year he could have ever imagined experiencing.

Starting secondary school, after a manage move, Rain came to realise that he had always ended up at the wrong place at the wrong time. However, through the many altercations, Rain found that his new school was not all that it seemed. Slowly, slowly the mysteries unravelled around him and he finally found out what his purpose was.

Now, as he returns to Year 8, something does not feel right once again. Trying to ignore it as much as he could, he is confronted once again with the same troubles but only this time, there is something else on Rain's mind that has taken priority over everything else.

Follow Rain, Isha and Mark once more on their adventure.

Will they be able to save their school, or will it be the end of Hodge Hill College?
